Gardena K. of C. Plan Open Meet In Member Drive

The Knights of Columbus, Gardena Valley Council 4038, will hold an open meeting at their clubhouse, 166th and Berendo Ave., tonight.

One thousand invitations have been mailed out to parishes fringing this area—to men—that the council feels could, and would like to become members of this order. Catholic men of the Nativity parish in Torrance, St. Catherine Labouré in Torrance, St. Joseph's in Hawthorne, St. Albert's in Compton, the Most Holy Mary in Gardena and St. Anthony's of Gardena come under the Gardena Valley Council K.C. Charter 4038.

All Catholic men of the above mentioned parishes who did not receive invitations are welcome to attend. There will be short talks, a total time of from 30 to 45 minutes, and refreshments will be served.

The general public is invited to attend the services, which will be held at the Shipley home on Sunday evenings at 7:30, until further notice.

Next Sunday evening Rev. Ray Anger will speak on "The Key to the Abundant Life," based on "The Science of Mind," written by Dr. Ernest Holmes, founder of Religious Science.

New Religious Science Church Holds First Meet

Twenty-six Torrance residents braved the cold and rain to attend the first Religious Science meeting held in the community last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Shipley, 1545 W. 216th St.

Rev. Ray Anger, minister of the San Pedro Church of Religious Science, gave an address on "How to Use Religious Science." At the conclusion of the service, general agreement was voiced concerning the need for a Religious Science Church in Torrance.

A committee of three was appointed to find a suitable auditorium for regular meetings. Members of the committee were Rev. Harold R. Morey, Rita M. Havens and Enid Lucille Thompson. Parents in attendance commented on the need for Sunday school classes for their children. Mrs. Gertrude Shipley and Mrs. Mildred Rowe presided at the social hour, at which coffee was served.

The general public is invited to attend the services, which will be held at the Shipley home on Sunday evenings at 7:30, until further notice.

Next Sunday evening Rev. Ray Anger will speak on "The Key to the Abundant Life," based on "The Science of Mind," written by Dr. Ernest Holmes, founder of Religious Science.

Church Plans New Series

The understanding and use of the principles of Religious Science will be discussed in sermons at the Redondo Beach Church of Religious Science, 503 S. Catalina Ave., throughout the month of February.

The pastor, Dr. Earl D. Barnum, will discuss "The Consciousness of Health" in the first sermon this Sunday. The principles and cause of healing will be the main theme, with some different interpretations of "healing consciousness" mentioned in the Bible.

A free lecture will be presented Thursday, Feb. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the church classroom introducing the new college course of Science of Mind. The course, which lasts 60 weeks, presents techniques and their application — "realizing happy, harmonious relationships, unlimited success and abundance, creative self-expression, and vibrant, vital health."

Inspiration hour will be held next Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. Those attending will bring lunches, with coffee to be furnished. The hour is dedicated to a "consciousness of healing and well-being."

METHODIST YOUTH WILL LEAD RITES

Four youth of the First Methodist Church, 1551 El Prado, will speak on the theme "From Confusion to Commitment" at the morning worship services this Sunday, Feb. 2.

Dick Hiebert and Jean Watson will speak at the 9 a.m. hour and speaking at the 11 a.m. service will be Betty Hope and Don Fisher. This special event, a part of the celebration of "Youth Week," is under the direction of the church's Youth Council and its president, Larry Drury. Marvin Hiebert is the adult adviser.

Gerald Roberts of the Senior MYF will preside at the early service, and Oren Horst of the Wesley Fellowship will direct the second hour. Reading the Scripture will be David Mullen and Paula Harter of the Intermediate MYF.

Others participating in the services are Danny Chambers, Richard Hodgson, Larry Flagg, Bob Murphy, Ray Shafer, Tom Sanders, Bill Kesselman and Leroy Dickerson, ushers; Barbara Hiebert, Mary Ahee, Sally Speck, Cleoan Maute, and Evelyn Shanklin, greeters; Marilyn Taylor, Sandra Crabtree, Joyce Goree, and Mary Ellen Jack, acolytes.

The Chancel Choir will sing the anthem, "O God of Youth" as arranged by Schroth. An offertory solo will be presented by Charlotte McComas. Rev. Don Shelby will be at the organ, and has chosen works of Couperin, Clerambault, and Purcell.

'Lord's Cup' Named Topic

"The Lord's Cup" will be the subject of the Rev. W. F. Alexander, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Gardena, 158th and Brighton Ave.—one block west of Normandie, Gardena.

'Love' Named Lesson Topic This Sunday

The great tenderness and care of God as Love, and of Christ Jesus' life of unselfed healing and redemptive love, is emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon on "Love" in all the Christian Science churches on Sunday.

The healing by Jesus of the centurion's servant is an important section of the Lesson-Sermon. Matthew records the incident which concludes with Jesus' instruction: "Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour" (8:13).

Referring to the way Jesus proved God's care in meeting our needs, Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "But mortals did need this help, and Jesus pointed the way for them." Then follow her words now quoted all over the world, "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need" (p. 494).

The Golden Text is in the words of the beloved disciple, John, "Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God" (1 John 4:7).
